

Articles and Publications

- Getting Paid on Construction Projects: A Guide to Utilizing Arizona's Mechanic's Lien, Payment Bond, Stop Notice and Private Prompt Payment Remedies
- Getting Paid on Construction Projects: A Guide to Utilizing California's Mechanic's Lien, Payment Bond, Stop Notice and Private Prompt Payment Remedies
- Arizona's Sick Leave Law In a Nutshell (February, 2017)
- Background Checks: Minimizing Risks or How to Reject an Employment Application without Being Sued (January, 2016)
- When Getting Paid is Not Getting Paid: Preferences in Bankruptcy (November, 2015)
- Arizona Court Clarifies Manner in Which 20 Day Notices Must Be Served on a State Project (May, 2015)
- Covenants Not To Compete Are Tough To Enforce (July, 2014)
- Using Independent Contractors Can Be Risky Business (October, 2013)
- Unjust Enrichment Limited in Landlord/Tenant Scenarios (May, 2013)
- Refusing to Hire a Convict Can Lead to a Charge of Discrimination (April, 2013)
- Tips For the Competitive Bidding Process (April, 2012)
- Your Warranty May Be Longer Than You Think (January, 2013)
- The Registrar's New Arbitration Process Regarding Corrective Work Orders (January, 2012)
- Stop Notices Are Valuable Tools to Collect Money (November, 2011)
- Preliminary 20 Day Notices Are Still Valuable in This Down Real Estate Market (July, 2010)